

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" it in The Sun.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:
Wanted—Bread baker. K. P. Cook, Newberry, Fla.

T. D. Mayfield of Williston was in the city on business yesterday.

Warranty and mortgage deeds for sale at this office. Fifty cents per dozen or $3.00 per hundred.

Mrs. W. D. Seigler of Waldo has returned to her home, after a brief visit to Mrs. J. H. Alderman in this city.

Lost—One pointer pup 6 months old, white with liver spots. Reasonable reward. Address R. H. Holstein, Hague, Fla.

W. P. Proveaux of Hague, who is connected with the C. W. Chase interests at that place, spent Saturday in this city on business.

Burrell Wiggins and son, Jake, of Hague, were among those who spent Saturday in the city. Mr. Wiggins is one of the most successful farmers in his section.

Mrs. E. A. Perry and Mrs. Grace Conway and son, Master Phipps, have removed to this city from Hammock Ridge, and are pleasantly located at the home of Mrs. Annie Brown.

W. T. Waters of Hickman, who has been on a brief visit to his wife, returned to his home yesterday. Mr. Waters is engaged in trucking at Hickman, and has been quite successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton of South Carolina have arrived in the city, and will make their future home here. Mr. Clinton has accepted a position with the Southern Bell Telephone Company. Himself and wife will be gladly welcomed.

Dr. Andrew Sledd, president of the University of Florida, has returned from Monticello, where on Sunday he delivered the commencement sermon to the Monticello High School. In the evening Dr. Sledd filled the pulpit of the Methodist church in that city.

Donald M. Livingston, relief agent of the Atlantic Coast Line who has had charge of the station at Citra for the past few weeks, has been relieved at that place, having been transferred to Interlachen. He is a nephew of Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. Livingston of Newberry.

Among the prominent West Enders visiting this city is Jack M. Brown of Lottville, an extensive cross-tie contractor of that place, and one of the most popular men in his section. Mr. Brown, who is a valued friend of The Sun, made this office an agreeable call. He states that Lottville is on a genuine boom since the railroad has reached there. The town will soon have a depot, and other buildings are going up. In all, the town, the section and the people are prosperous.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:
Miss Pauline Smith of Greensboro, N. C., is in the city, a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Conklin.

H. A. Pickett and C. C. Wetherington of Newberry spent yesterday in this city on business.

J. R. Smith of Trenton, who has been in the city for the past two days, returned to his home yesterday.

Marshal C. C. Harwell and Captain W. G. Shehee of High Springs were transacting business in this city yesterday.

J. F. Simmons, one of Gainesville's well-known carpenters, has gone to Waldo, where he will be employed for the next few days.

Mrs. A. E. Wittstock and daughter, Miss Cora, have gone to Clearwater, where they were called on account of the illness of a relative.

Mrs. Annie Brown left Monday for Hendersonville, N. C., where she will spend the summer. Friends wish her a pleasant and beneficial outing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lee, well known and prominent people of Melrose, were among those who favored Gainesville friends with a visit yesterday.

Mrs. Janie Haynes, who has been residing in this city for the past few months, has gone to Dunnellon, which place she will make her future home.

W. H. Hodge, a prominent citizen and business man of Alachua, was in the city yesterday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Ellen Tanner.

'Phone A. M. Dickson, broker, Gainesville, and get prices, quality and quick delivery. Goods sold from Jacksonville and the West. Can give delivery prices to all points.

The infant son of Chas. W. Duval and wife, colored, died yesterday, and will be buried today. Charlie has many friends, both races, who sympathize with him in his troubles.

J. B. Jordan, a ginmer of Sea Island cotton at High Springs, was in the city for a few hours yesterday. He was en route to Jacksonville, where he had been summoned on business.

Mrs. Sallie Zetrouer, one of the popular clerks at the delivery window in the Gainesville postoffice, is now enjoying a vacation of a few days with friends in Alachua, which is well deserved.

C. R. Sparkman of Waldo is among those serving on the jury during the present week of the circuit court. He is one of the best citizens of his town, and for many years conducted the meat market at Waldo.

Friends of Dr. J. H. Alderman, the dentist, will be pleased to learn that he is out again, after an illness of several days with typhoid fever. He may now be found at his office again, as bright and jolly as ever.

We acknowledge an agreeable call yesterday from K. P. Cook and C. K. Wetherington of Newberry, the latter entering his name on the subscription list of The Sun. Mr. Cook is an old friend and subscriber of this paper for years.

Mr. Goodnow is erecting a nice home on East Church street, about three blocks from Sweetwater branch. It has the appearance of being an eight-room house, two stories, and will make quite an attractive addition to that neighborhood.

W. P. Boulware of Orange Heights, one of the best known and most successful planters in his section of the county, was trading in the city Monday. Mr. Boulware states that the crops are looking fine after the recent rain, and a good yield is expected.

J. J. Donaldson of Waldo was among those who came to Gainesville Monday, and while here made The Sun an agreeable call, renewing his subscription. He was summoned on the jury of the circuit court, but was excused owing to illness of his wife.

Col. J. G. Nichols and daughter, Miss Alice, left yesterday for Kingston, Mass., where they expect to remain for the next few weeks. Miss Nichols is a general favorite here among the younger society people, all of whom will miss her, but wish her a pleasant outing.

C. W. Colson and daughter, Miss Clara, and Misses Chastaine Sanders and Matilda Lindsey, all of Trenton, have returned to their home, after a visit to relatives and friends in this city. Miss Colson has been attending the high school here, and made herself quite popular among her classmates.

The home so long owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ammons, corner East Mechanic and North University streets, has been removed to a point on North University, where it will receive a thorough overhauling. When completed it will be one of the most attractive residences in that section of the city.

Mrs. K. A. Taylor, who has been conducting The Oaks Hotel in this city for the past two years, has decided to go to St. Augustine, where she will assume the management of the Palmetto. The Oaks has been leased by Mr. Van Allen, a well-known and competent hotel man, who will assume charge of the hostelry on June 1st.

C. D. Wood of Archer and Dr. W. W. Scott of Hopedale, Ohio, were in the city yesterday and made The Sun an agreeable call. Mr. Scott, who is a young man, has recently graduated from the Chattanooga Medical College, Chattanooga, Tenn., and is now on a visit to his cousin, Mrs. Wood. He is well pleased with this section, and expresses his intention of locating here.

Among the prominent South Florida people who spent Monday in this city was Rev. G. W. Van Sickle of Winter Park, a missionary of the Presbyterian Sunday School Board. He was enroute from Tioga, where on Sunday he organized a very promising school, with the prospects of a membership of forty or more. Dr. Van Sickle was also here Friday of the past week, and delivered an interesting address in North Gainesville hall.

Miss Minnie Lee of Melrose, one of Alachua county's popular and efficient school teachers, was in the city a few hours Monday, being en route home from Newberry, where she has been engaged in teaching school. Miss Lee has just closed the term, which has been one of the most successful in the history of the school. She made herself quite popular among both patrons and pupils, and they all hope to have her back next term.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:
Old papers for sale at this office.

Blank leases for sale at this office. Price $2 per hundred.

Mules for sale or rent. Apply at once to Geo. W. Scofield, Gainesville.

H. T. Mott and family have removed to 518 West Main street N., where they are now pleasantly located.

Fancy Eggs For Setting—White and Barred Plymouth Rock and Wandotte for sale; pure breed. W. D. Fagan.

Friends of Mrs. W. J. Denby will regret to learn that she is quite ill at her home, but trust that she will recover soon.

Hon. Frank Clark left yesterday for Fort White, where he delivered last night an address at the closing of the Fort White High School.

Remember A. M. Dickson, the broker, when in the market for groceries, hay, grain and feed-stuff. Save money and time. Write or 'phone me. Both long-distance 'phones.

Miss Gladys Burke, a charming young lady of Jacksonville, is in the city, a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Merchant. Miss Burke, who has visited Gainesville before, has many friends among the young people who are delighted to greet her.

County Tax Assessor W. W. Colson has moved into his new home on South Pelmetto avenue, which is one of the most attractive in that section of the city. The new home contains eight rooms, and is modern in every respect. His friends congratulate him upon this new possession.

The Kappa Alpha fraternity of the University of Florida gave a dance in the armory Wednesday night which was well attended, and which was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the kind given here this season. The program was comprised of eighteen dances, with several extras, and the young folks enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. During the evening delicious fruit punch was served.

Phifer Bros.

BANKERS

Do a General Banking Business.

We solicit the accounts of...

Merchants

Farmers

Corporations and Individuals.

Small depositors will receive the same courteous treatment as larger ones.

Interest paid on Savings Accounts and on Certificates of Deposit.

For further information call at the Bank.

Phifer Bros.

FINE PROGRAM FOR THE COMMENCEMENT

Gainesville High School Will Entertain Friends Friday.

MANY INTERESTING NUMBERS

It is Proposed to Make This One of the Finest Literary Entertainments the People of Gainesville Have Ever Seen—the Public Invited.

The first annual commencement of the Gainesville (Senior) High School will take place Friday night, at the school auditorium. A cordial invitation is extended to all parties and friends of the school. The exercises will begin promptly at 8 p. m.

The public entrance to the auditorium is in the rear of the building. The front entrance will be used on this evening by the high school pupils only.

Flowers.

Parents and friends desiring to present flowers to those taking part in the program will please attach to them a plainly marked card and turn them over to the flower girls, who will be stationed at the front entrance of the building.

The Program.

The following is the program, together with a list of the officers of various classes and societies of the school:

Invocation—Rev. T. J. Nixon.
Song of the classes—High School.
Address—Hon. Frank Clark.
Violin duet—Ruby DeLand, Tom R. McBeath.

Orations by Representatives of Freshman Class—(a) "Edison," Earle Kelley; (b) "La Fayette," Joy Williams.

Essays by Representatives of Freshman Class—(a) "Mary Washington," Winnifred Pedrick; (b) "Frances Willard," Floy Cecil.

Piano duet—Edith Bagley, Inis Thomas.

Orations by Representatives of Sophomore Class—(a) "Stonewall" Jackson, Sam Mixon; (b) "Robert E. Lee," Earle Taylor.

Essays by Representatives of Sophomore Class—(a) "Ayesha," Lucia Patton; (b) "Victoria," Ethel Durst.

Song—"The Purple and the White," Glee Club.

Orations by Representatives of Junior Class—(a) "Washington," Jasper Malphurs; (b) "Luther," Tom R. McBeath.

Essays by Representatives of Junior Class—(a) "Isabella of Spain," Lena Hunter; (b) "Joan of Arc," Bessie Kelley.

Vocal solo—Rosabel Pedrick.

Essay—"Ancient Landmarks," Maud Lewis.

Presentation of diplomas—Dr. J. L. Kelley.

Presentation of medals—Hon. W. W. Hampton.

Song—"Good Night," Glee Club.

Organizations.

Freshman Class—Earle Kelley, president; Ralph McRae, vice-president; Florence Steckert, secretary; Mable Avera, treasurer; Crimson and Black, colors.

Sophomore Class—Dallas Bowers, president; Leo Baker, vice-president; Inis Thomas, secretary; Earle Taylor, treasurer; Red and White, colors.

Junior Class—Heloise Vidal, president; Lena Hunter, vice-president; Bessie Kelley, secretary; Jasper Malphurs, treasurer; Tom R. McBeath, class poet; Purple and Gold, colors.

Glee Club—Sopranos—Valera Bennett, Lena Colclough, Lucia Patton, Mary Phifer, Rosabel Pedrick, Ida McDonald, Ethel Butler, Heloise Vidal, Kate Boulware, Evelyn Collins, Mamie Perry, Katie Barrs, Winnifred Pedrick, Mattie May Williams, Julia Bunch, Mattie Boulware, Margaret Merchant, Lucy Orr, Montine Fagan, Fred Bruce, Joy Williams.

Altos—Mabel Avera, Floy Cecil, Inis Thomas, Anna Taylor, Maud Lewis.

Tenors—Earle Kelley, Dallas Bowers, Sam Mixon.

Basses—Tom R. McBeath, Jasper Malphurs, Douglas Perry.

Baseball Team—Fred Hampton, manager; Byers Douglas, captain; Dallas Bowers, c.; Earle Taylor, p.; Cuthbert Padgett, 1st b.; Byers Douglas, 2nd b.; Alex. Harper, 3rd b.; Davis Douglas, s. s.; Fraser Merchant, lf.; Sam Dempsey, cf.; Giles Means, rf.; Jake Padgett, sub.

A few newspaper files for sale. Apply at Sun office.

To make Ice Cream in 10 minutes for 1 cent a plate. Stir contents of one package.

Jell-O Ice Cream Powder

Into a quart of milk and freeze, without heating or cooking. Simple, isn't it? Saves the cost of eggs, sugar and flavoring. Saves measuring out ingredients and cooking. Does away with all uncertainty, and insures the best and purest ice cream possible to produce. Failure impossible. Nothing to add except milk. One package costing 13c. makes nearly two quarts ice cream.

Flavors: Chocolate, Vanilla, Strawberry, Lemon and Unflavored.

2 packages 25c. If your grocer does not keep it send us his name and $5 cents for two packages by mail. New illustrated recipe book mailed free.

The Genesee Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y.
P. S. Delicious Cream Feeding can also be made from Jell-O ICE CREAM Powder.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

Having decided to close our banking department, to take effect June 15th, 1907, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the past liberal patronage and for the many evidences of favor and confidence which we have received, and also to make known our regrets at severing a business connection which has now extended over a period of more than 35 years, during which time we have formed a most sincere friendship for these many friends and patrons who have remained with us during all, or a part, of this time.

All checks for deposits will be paid without interruption. All time certificates of deposits, bearing interest, will be redeemed on presentation and interest paid, in full, to the date of presentation. Very sincerely,

H. F. DUTTON & COMPANY,
May 18, 1907. Gainesville, Fla.

To Our Friends and Patrons:

Since making our announcement that we would close our banking business to take effect on June 15th, 1907, we have sold our building, fixtures and vaults to W. R. Thomas, G. K. Broome, H. F. Dutton, C. W. Chase, J. H. Vidal, S. J. Thomas and J. B. Padgett, well-known business men in this city and county, who will organize a banking company to be conducted in this building. In order that there may be no discontinuance of the banking business in this building, we have decided to continue our business until the organization of the new company and we respectfully ask our friends and patrons who have so kindly done business with us to continue their business with the new firm. It will be managed by wise and conservative business men whom we have known in a business way for years, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage. As advised in our circular letter of the 18th, all checks will be paid without interruption, and certificates of deposits redeemed, with interest, on presentation.

H. F. DUTTON & COMPANY,
May 22nd, 1907.

An Invitation.

Kirby Smith Chapter, U. D. C., Stonewall Camp, U. C. M., Lew Wallace Camp, G. A. R. and the Blues and Grays are cordially invited to attend a memorial silver tea at the residence of Mrs. George K. Broome, on the evening of June 8th, Jefferson Davis' birthday, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

MISS MARGUERITE STRINGFELLOW, Rec. Sec.

J. J. Finley Chapter, U. D. C.

Mr. Stewart Returns.

D. H. Stewart, one of the best known and most efficient railway clerks in the country who has been in Fernandina for the past few years, has returned to Gainesville, and is now connected with the Seaboard at this point.

Mr. Stewart was here several years ago, and his many friends are glad to welcome him again.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Wekiwa Springs Company, owners and managers of the famous Wekiwa Springs, Orange county, which are noted for their health-giving properties. This resort has just been provided with an elegant new hotel, at which the rates are very reasonable. The hotel and springs are surrounded by a magnificent grove, high pine land, and will prove a delightful summer resort. The Seaboard Air Line railroad is offering the special low rate of $2.75 for the round trip from Gainesville. See the ad., and if you are contemplating a trip don't forget Wekiwa.

For the best printed stationery at lowest prices call at The Sun office.